

LPV recommendations

- Recommend to exploit currently existing ground networks to increase the efficiency of validation activities, with special emphasis on seasonality
- Recommend agencies to support the continuity and expansion of product validation activities to be able to quantify the associated uncertainties and allow fusion between similar products
- Encourage agencies and producers to prepare subsets of data/products for global product intercomparison activity as described by CEOS/WGCV/LPV